

City of Vancouver Heritage Award

Awards of Honor

Greencroft, 3838 Cypress Street

An Award of Honour for the careful rehabilitation of the exterior details, the re-creation of interior detailing, and the larger incorporation of the gardens and infill houses, conserving a unique English Arts and Crafts estate in Shaughnessy. Awards were presented to owners Kirsten Strand and Gregg Moe, and contractor Colin Turner.

Flack Block, 163 West Hastings Street

An Award of Honour for the careful restoration of the exterior stonework and other details, and the exemplary re-creation of the arch stone entry, seismic and systems upgrading, sustainable interiors and reinstated areaways. Awards were presented to The Sallient Group, Acton Ostry Architects and Donald Luxton & Associates.

Pennsylvania Hotel, 412 Carrall Street

An Award of Honour for the careful restoration of the exterior stonework and exterior elements such as the turret, the re-creation of the historic sign, and for supportive housing, contributing to the revitalization of the Hastings strip. Awards were presented to the Portland Hotel Society, Merrick Architecture, Donald Luxton & Associates and Darwin Construction.
